VANDALISM AT CAMP FORTY ACRES

All our readers are acquainted with the good deed of our chief of police, Paul Lynch, in acting as a go-between in getting help to bulldoze a road into the Wilmington Youths Camps Inc., at Camp Forty Acres, way up there on Andover road.

Well, it seems as though there are some persons who have other ideas on the subject. Some of Wilmington's Scouting Officials have received nasty letters about the business, and there have been implied threats of legal action - legal action which would not stand up in any court of law as Scout Treasurer Phillip Buzzell has said.

Now, other means are being used to express displeasure with the Boy Scout Camp. Some person has taken down and destroyed the rustic camp sign which the Boy Scouts made and erected on Town property, on Andover Street. The broken remains were carted into the Scout property and left near the Totem pole which the boys have had there for some time. The boys have a pretty good idea of who the varmint is, and they may have a trick or two up their sleeves on how to treat varmints.

REPAVING MAIN STREET

Main street has been resurfaced with pea stone and tar, from the Tewksbury line to Wilmington centre.

WALKER SCHOOL PAINT JOB FINISHED

The Walker School paint job, which has been announced as having been given to Mr. Riccelli of Shawheen avenue was completed last Tuesday. Mrs. Wiberg has already inspected the work in the grade 1 room, and likes the color very much (it is sunshine yellow). The other rooms and colors are grade 2 soft green, grade 3 pearl grey, and grade 4 old rose.

DID THE HEAT BOTHER YOU?

We have had word from Cpl. Ted Nichols, stationed at Parris Island with the Marines, that the temperature there is in the high 90's and low 100's.

RETURNS TO CIVILIAN LIFE

T/Sgt. Talbot Hood, USMCR, has returned to the cares and woes of civilian life, after having spent nearly a year on active duty with the Marines at Parris Island, S. C. He and Mrs. Hood (the former Eleanor Boyd) and Linda, aged 17 months are now looking for living quarters in Wilmington after having shared barracks life in Uncle Sam's big Marine training base.

Talbot has become associated with radio station WTOA in Cambridge, as an announcer, since returning to Wilmington. Personally, we think that any ex-sergeant of the Marines ought to be able to make himself heard without the aid of a microphone.

EXPERIMENTAL WELL

The Water Department has dug an experimental well, twenty-nine and one-half feet deep owned by Mr. John D. Cooke, in Lawrence Acres. The well, which was driven on a 29 acre tract which was restricted from development by the Planning Board was supplying water at the rate of 75 to 80 gallons a minute Tuesday afternoon. The well was driven by Norman Smith of Woburn street, an employee of the water department.

This well, which is experimental, and has not yet been approved by the State Department of Health, is being tried out, as will others at the same site, as the result of a report by the Geodetic Survey, showing that plenty of water seems to be available at the site. It is possible that the town may take over this site, in the future for an additional source of water for the town.

CHILD HURTS LEG

Little Ellen Burke, 8, who has been staying at the Landau place, on Lake street, fell on a wire fence and hurt her right leg Tuesday morning at 11:30 a.m. She was rushed to the Choate Memorial hospital in Woburn by Officer Imbimbo in the ambulance. Five stitches had to be taken in the leg.

DUTCH ELM DISEASE

There have not yet been positive identifications of Dutch Elm disease in Wilmington. More twigs were sent into the State for examination during the last week.

ON FLOOD DUTY IN KANSAS

Pfc Charles White of Glen road has been on flood duty in Forbes AFB, Topeka, Kan. Charlie, who was studying at the Teacher's College, was put into emergency duty, evacuating people from homes and helping to prepare huge sandbag dikes. Charlie was scheduled to fly to Emporia, but was unable to land there because of the flood, and instead found himself helping out in Topeka.

MISS MAY SWAIN

Miss May Swain has returned to her home on West street after her recent operation in the Winchester hospital.

BEST MOVIE OF THE YEAR

We don't ordinarily pay attention to the movies, but we note that the Wilmington Theatre is showing "The Prince of Peace," which is the Passion Play on film, Sunday and Monday. We are very happy to commend the Wilmington Theatre for bringing this picture to Wilmington.

FIRST TOMATOES?

Mr. Giulio Matroni of Butters row picked his first tomatoes on last Sunday. He planted Bonny Best if you are interested in the brand. We await other reports from backyard gardeners.

FIREMEN'S MEETING CANCELLED

The regular Wednesday evening meeting of the Auxiliary Firemen will be cancelled this week. The Fire Department will take part in the Firemen's parade in North Reading at 7:30 on Wednesday evening.

LIGHTNING HAS A HOLIDAY

Last Thursday, Wilmington, in common with all other nearby towns was visited by a violent thunderstorm, with very heavy rain for a brief period of time.

Mrs. William Irwin of Glendale circle was at work in her home, when the chimney was struck by lightning. The lightning went down the chimney and into the Irwin home, following the metal lath under the plaster, throughout the house, and chipping plaster off in spots in nearly every room. Bricks were dislodged from the chimney, for a distance of 7 to 8 feet from the top and the top was demolished.

Mrs. Irwin, of course, was a very surprised lady. She was conscious of the electricity being all around her, and could smell what seemed to be sulphur, but was absolutely unharmed.

A tall pine tree on Grove avenue was split by a bolt of lightning, and the falling half brought down all the wires supplying electricity to Silver lake. The Wilmington police blocked off the area, and the tree department was called, to work overtime in removing the tree (It was a very fortunate thing that the Wilmington tree department had a power saw for the occasion.)

On Clark street, two young men from Revere were checking over their automotive needs in Rusty's Auto Parts, a second hand auto parts place owned by Aristide Brabant, an operator of Frank Balquiere. One of the men was Louis Mercurio of Revere and the name of the other is not known. They were working in the garage removing old bolts when a pile of old batteries was struck by lightning. The repercussion threw one of the men out of the door and about 15 feet into a puddle, and the same bolt ripped a shoe from Mercurio's foot. The two men, badly shocked walked through the storm to Dr. Fagan's home which was very near and were there treated by the doctor. There were no injuries other than shock.

SURPRISE BABY SHOWER

On Saturday evening, Mrs. James Richards of Lowell street was the guest of honor at a surprise baby shower given at the home of her mother, Mrs. Chase of Grove avenue. Peggy's sister, Marie Palumbo acted as hostess.

Refreshments were served and many fine and useful gifts were presented her.

CELEBRATES 5TH BIRTHDAY

Miss Lucille Medico celebrated her fifth birthday recently with a party at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Medico of Federal street.

The room in which the party was conducted was decorated with pink and green streamers and rosettes. Games were enjoyed and refreshments served. Many fine gifts were presented to Lucille.

ACCIDENT IN HARRIMAN'S TANNERY

Robert Fleming of Highland avenue, North Wilmington was seriously injured in an accident at Harriman's Tannery on July 18.

Fleming, working under the direction of the management, was preparing an experimental mixture which was being prepared in an effort to rid the tannery of some of its offensive odors.

The preparation, a combination of calcium and chlorine, with about 70 per cent chlorine, had been in use in the Atlantic Gelatine plant, in East Woburn, for some time, and had been quite effective in ridding that plant of odors.

Harriman had been using Sylpho-Naphthol solution in an effort to rid the tannery of the hydrogen-sulphide odors.

It was decided to buy a barrel of this new preparation, and Fleming was directed to mix the first batch. He carefully measured out 10 pounds of the white powder, and dropped it into his mixing barrel, which apparently still contained some of the Sylpho-Naphthol. There was a flare-up and flames shot into the air for a height of 10 feet, burning Fleming about the face and eyes.

He was rushed to Lowell, and placed under the care of Dr. Leahy, an eye specialist of that city. He has since returned home, and it is hoped there will be no permanent injury.

ST. THOMAS WINS

Friday evening at Lexington, St. Thomas' CYO made it five victories in eight starts by routing St. Bridget's 6-2. For the winners, Busineau, allowed only one run and two hits, while working six. Larry Cushing with two singles and Frank DiPiano with a triple and a steal of home led the winners at bat in a game that St. Thomas out hustled St. Bridget's with seven stolen bases.

GOING-AWAY PARTY

Approximately 21 guests attended a going-away party on Saturday for Corporal Albert Fiorenza, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fiorenza of Andover street. The party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Medico of Federal st.

Corporal Fiorenza will leave on Thursday for duty in Korea. He was formerly stationed at Fort Dix.

RETURNS TO DUTY

DC2 Dominick Medico, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Medico of Federal street, returned recently to Jersey City, where he is stationed with the Coast Guard, after spending two weeks leave with friends and relatives in Wilmington.

Dominick has three brothers who are also members of the armed services: Edward Edwards, 27, who is at present serving with the Navy aboard the USS Sierra; Sgt. Joseph E. Medico, 24, of the Air Corp, stationed in New Mexico; Pfc Peter Medico, 20, is serving in Japan with the army. He has been stationed here for 3 years and on July 13 received his diploma for completing his anti-aircraft attachment course at artillery school.

LAWN CHAIR STOLEN

Mrs. Anne Bonaccorsi of Wiser street reported to the police on July 20 that someone had stolen a metal chair, with seat and back painted red, and other parts blue, sometime during the previous night. The chair was valued at $3.75.

THE BUILDING BY-LAWS

The By-Law Committee had ready for Wilmington's voters, at the last Town Meeting, copies of the new proposed By-Laws of Wilmington. An immense amount of work has gone into the preparation of these By-Laws, and the Committee under the leadership of William Shaughnessy should be thanked for their labors.

We know that the gentlemen of the committee do not pretend to be perfect, and we understand that they appreciate good suggestions.

This paper has a suggestion, (not necessarily good).

On Page 4, there is a paragraph that reads as follows:

"No building hereafter erected, altered, added to or repaired that is to be finished in whole or in part, shall be lathed, plastered, or sheathed, until the builder or mechanic shall have notified the Inspector of Buildings to inspect the same and shall have received from said Inspector a notice in writing that such work is accepted. The Inspector of Buildings on receipt of a notice from the builder that any building or alterations, additions, or repairs to any building are ready for inspection, shall as soon as possible, inspect the premises, but shall not accept the building until all the requirements . . ."

This paper agrees with the provision, but believes that there should be a more explicit explanation of "as soon as possible." There is too much latitude there, and it is possible for a Building Inspector to claim that a three-week delay was all in the course of "as soon as possible."

If these by laws are accepted by the town, as they now read, we doubt that the Secretary of State will accept them, without clarification of the above phrase.

We suggest that "within 24 hours, Sundays and holidays excepted" be inserted after the word "possible."

The LOWDOWN on the SYLVANIA DEAL

(By our Under the Table Correspondent)

The Sylvania Corporation bought a site of land in Woburn some months ago, and got a permit to build a factory there. Construction was started and then stopped, when about 200 of North Woburn's residents protested, in a signed petition, claiming that the Zoning Laws were being abrogated. As a result, a suit was brought against the Building Inspector of Woburn, into which the Sylvania Corporation soon entered itself, and which has dragged on now for some time.

Construction is now two months behind schedule. The plant is supposed to be ready for the first of January. The Sylvania Corporation has interviewed all of the 200 persons who signed the petition, and all but 17 have changed their views. These 17 persons, along with 3 lawyers who are donating their services, swear that they will continue the fight, through the Supreme Court if necessary.

The Sylvania Corporation wants to build at the site it has chosen. It needs to have 950 gallons of water a minute, from its own wells, and it needs a supply of local gas, in addition to the need for good truck transportation, which is offered by the new location of Route 128. Wilmington's site is No. 2 on their list, but only in case they cannot use the North Woburn site. The other towns which are reported to have been told that they are being considered are issuing cock-and-bull stories, for some reason or other.

If the suit is won by the Sylvania Corporation, in the coming trial by court, and if the 17 citizens do not appeal, then Sylvania will build in Woburn. If, on the other hand, the 17 citizens appeal the case, as they threaten to do, then, maybe Sylvania will wash its hands of Woburn, and come to Wilmington.

Wilmington's site offers practically the same advantages as does the Woburn site, except for gas, and there is soon to be a gas line within a quarter of a mile of the site proposed for the plant, here in Wilmington.

THE BUZZELL SCHOOL ROOF

There have been some ugly stories about the job of rebuilding the Buzzell school roof, last winter. Several persons, who were in a position to know at least part of the story have related circumstances to this paper that did not sound nice.

1. Oral instructions only were given. There was nothing in writing. So we are told.

2. All contractors were told that the job had to be finished during the Christmas week, rain or shine, so we are told.

3. The successful contractor, from the bidding standpoint, happened to be a relative of the School Maintenance Man, which didn't help. He was supposed to be working on the job as late as the middle of February, which did not sound good, if all other contractors were supposed to finish by New Year's Day.

4. We are told that somehow or other, the job was never inspected by Mr. John Moynihan, of Lowell, whose job it is to inspect all school buildings in this part of Massachusetts.

Item No. 2 seems to be correct, in view of the evidence regarding Item No. 3. On Item No. 3, the School Board records show that Mr. Mills, the successful contractor was paid in full on December 30, 1950, the job completed. So much for that.

If Item No. 1 is true, it displays bad judgement. All specifications for any job that the town lets out should be in writing. Any official who releases contracts without having protected himself by reducing every thing to writing is not very much aware of the facts of business life. We didn't ask at the time when we could have, whether or not specifications were in writing. We shall find out and report.

Item No. 4. We don't know if Mr. Moynihan inspected the job, after it was done. We shall find out.

BOARD OF APPEALS HOLDS HEARING

The Board of Appeals held a hearing on July 17 on the appeal of Mrs. Marion Murphy, to erect a filling station on her premises on Main street in South Wilmington.

About 10 persons appeared, as witnesses for and against the appeal. The Board, sitting with Mr. Howard Woolaver as acting chairman gave no decision last night.

CARRIER'S EXPRESS

Roy Bros. Inc. of Billerica have bought the Long Distance Service of Carrier's Express, from Ernest Carrier, of Shawheen avenue, in a transaction which was completed recently.

Ernest says that the Local Service of Carrier's Express, which he founded 23 years ago, and has operated ever since, will still be continued by him, and will give the same service as usual.

NORTHEAST GAS COMPANY

We understand that the Northeast Gas Company has had some success in clearing a right of way for its transmission line thru Wilmington. Some land owners are obdurate however. The offer made to one landowner was $10 for the right, plus $1 for each rod of land traversed, plus damages, if any. The offer was rejected.

JUNK LICENSE REFUSED

The Board of Selectmen, in their meeting last week refused a junk license to William Kimball of North street. The license was refused because Mr. Kimball had stated that he intended to store junk on his premises and this is contrary to the published policy of the Selectmen.

DELEGATES TO LEGION CONVENTION

Joe Woods and Carl Dreger have been chosen by the Wilmington Post of the American Legion to represent them at the Annual State Convention, in Holyoke, next month. Bernard McMahon and Arthur B. Harper were chosen as alternates.

GREER SURVEYORS

Surveyors have been on the Greer Lot last week, cutting brush and laying lines. The site of the building is all staked out. The holdups before construction are several, one of them being that the Attorney General has not yet signed the law making the change in Zoning legal, and other delays being caused by red tape in Washington.

PRUDENTIAL LIFE INSURANCE CO.

The Prudential Life Insurance Co. which has as their trademark the Rock of Gibraltar, have become conscious of Wilmington's swamps. At least, they have sent a Mr. Davis to visit the TM and discuss the possibility of their making investments here.

TOWN DUMP

FUNCTIONS TRANSFERRED

TM Cushing has transferred the Town Dump to the care of the highway department and has revised the hours of the care taker, so as to include evening and week-end hours. He thus does away with the 9-5 shift which was really ineffective.

BREAKING AND ENTERING

The proprietor of Tattersal's news store reported to the police at 5:30 a.m. Sun., July 15 that some one had broken into the store during the preceding night and stolen some cigarettes and about $3 or $4 in change.

THREE WOMEN ON TRIP TO HUDSON BAY, CANADA

Mrs. Lillian Blaquiere, of Andover street has just returned from a ten-day trip which she and her mother, Mrs. Rose Mercier, of Chelsea and Mrs. Eugenie Roy, her aunt, of Worcester have taken into the wilds of Quebec, and up to the shores of Hudson Bay.

They left the United States via Newport, Vermont, and went to Lac Megantic, to visit an uncle, after which Montreal was visited, Sister St. Charles at Longueuil, a cousin, who has spent over 30 years in the Order de Notre Dame De Mission.

The rest of the family having been visited, the ladies felt that they could really start on their adventures. From Montreal, they went up to Mount Laurier, where the wilderness starts. From there to Val D'Or an approximate distance of 300 miles, there was nothing but graveled roads, through the forests and around the lakes. There were no settlements just two gas stops, in the entire distance and plenty of Moose and Bear which are noted for their ferocity. No guns were allowed, but plenty of advice was given to the ladies about the dangers of getting out of the car.

Val D'Or, when translated, Valley of Gold. It was here that the Gold Mine settlements started, and went up to Noranda, which is described as being the richest little city, in which is smelted large quantities of gold, silver and copper. Noranda is in the very northwestern tip of Quebec, close to Ontario, and about 40 miles from Hudson Bay.

The ladies wanted to go up to the Bay, to dunk their feet in it, but one of the tires had gone bad, in Noranda, and the only spare was in not too good condition. They were unable to get another one, and thought it best to turn back. Besides, gasoline was 53 cents a gallon and oil 65 cents a quart. Mrs. Blaquiere thought they had brought the gasoline in by dog sled, and that the visitors were expected to pay for the dogs.

That bad tire is the regret of Lillian's life. She wanted to see Hudson Bay, and didn't. She wanted to get in some real fishing, and didn't. She wanted to go even further north, but didn't. She was the only one who could drive, and she didn't trust her tires, hence they turned around, and back they went, this time thru Ontario, where the settlements were fairly close together, only 50 or 60 miles apart.

They came down through North Bay, Colbat, and Callander, where the Quints live, but are not to be seen. They stopped overnight at Port Alexander, the atomic research laboratory on the Ottawa River, and then on to Ottawa.

Guess what the ladies did when they got back to the big cities. They went on a shopping spree, bless their hearts!

Ottawa to Hull, then to Montreal was the itinerary, thence to Lake Champlain and home.

Quite a trip for three ladies, without a spare to the car! 2386 miles.

A host of friends and fellow members gathered there to show their appreciation for her untiring effort during her term of office. After a delicious dinner was served to about 50 guests, the current Grand Regent Mrs. Mary Welling, presented the guest of honor with a "Past Grand Regent's Pin." Appropriate remarks were made by Miss Bessie McMann, before she turned the remainder of the program over to Mrs. Sally Thiel who presented Mrs. DeLisle with numerous gifts including a purse and a beautiful corsage.

A very thoughtful gesture on the part of the committee was the cigars given to Mr. DeLisle, who offered his assistance whenever it was needed.

A happy ending to a very successful party was made by the management with the presentation of a beautifully decorated cake which was boxed and ready for Mrs. DeLisle to take home.

NEW RESUSCITATOR CREDITED WITH SAVING MANY LIVES

The Fire Department purchased an Emerson Resuscitator in late 1950, which is attached to the Mack Truck. This apparatus with the close co-operation of the Police and Fire Departments has been credited with saving several lives, the most recent being that of Ludwik Leskiewicz of John street, who was rushed to St. John's Hospital suffering from a severe attack of asthma just a short while ago. Mr. Leskiewicz has given public thanks to the Police and Fire Departments for their parts in saving his life.

The resuscitator may be used for resuscitation and as an inhalator. Tanks of oxygen may be added or switched while in operation without interfering with the protection of the patient.

This apparatus is equipped with adaptors which make it possible to use it on as many as three persons at one time with extension hoses that can bring full protection to victims in holes, tanks, etc., as far away as four hundred feet.

The resuscitator may be used for the following victims: of accidents and attacks; drowning, electric shock, gas asphyxiation, suffocation, pneumonia, asthma, etc.

The Fire Department is proud to have such modern equipment available for saving lives and is grateful to the voters of Wilmington for making the purchase possible.

SYMPATHY

Sympathy is extended to Mr. Beriney Simpson of 34 Columbia street, upon the death of his mother, Mrs. Kittie Simpson.

Funeral services were held for Mrs. Simpson, 63, from the Congregational church at St. Johnsbury, Vt., on Tuesday, July 10 with Rev. Otis Maxfield officiating. Interment was in the family lot in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery at St. Johnsbury.

Funeral services were under the direction of Guy Nichols.

HUNTING FOR NEW PERMANENT FIREMEN

The Town of Wilmington is looking for new permanent firemen who would like to be trained to carefully fulfill the duties of a fireman for this community. It is planned to prepare a select list and include the names on this list in the training program now being prepared by Fire Chief Arthur Boudreau and the Town Manager for the present members of the fire department. The program will include lectures, study hours and training trips to other co-operating fire departments.

The training will not only include fire fighting and fire prevention but also care of equipment and maintenance of physical plant.

APPRECIATION

Wilmington Fire Dept.

Wilmington Police Dept.

I wish to express my deepest thanks and appreciation to the Wilmington Fire Department and to the Wilmington Police Department for the assistance rendered to me during my recent illness.

Thank you, very truly,
Ludwik Leskiewicz,
John Street.

TOWN NOTES

RAINFALL

Rainfall for the week up to 8 a.m. Sunday was 1.77 inches, at the pumping station, 1.19 inches fell in 45 minutes, during the thunderstorm Thursday.

BLUEBERRIES

The little boys (and girls too) who come to our door are asking 40 cents for a quart of blueberries. Some start at 50 cents, and allow themselves to be beaten down to 40, but there it stops. We still have had no reports of the blueberrying behind the Congregational church.

WHEAT

Millard Pipes, on the Bell Farm, down on Chestnut street has cut his acre of wheat, and at last reports it was standing in shocks, waiting to be taken to the barn. He plans to save all he gets for seed. We are interested in seeing how much he gets out of his acre of land, to compare it with western yields. There has been no move by Bob Evans, of Ballardvale street as yet, to the cutting of his 80 acres of wheat. It is now all golden brown, and the heads are nodding from the weight of the grain.

WATER BILLS

Some of our citizens are up in arms at least as far as this paper is concerned, about the fact that they now have to pay their water bills in the town hall. Some want this paper to do something about it.

The TM moved the Water Department to the town hall, as was his right to do. It is evident that it was for reasons of economy, and we aren't sure that the people who kick aren't all just anti-TM, but your editor is willing to discuss the point.

How much does the town save by the move? What was the rent paid to the bank? How many citizens feel that it is an imposition to go to the town hall? How about sending your money by mail, would that be easier?

These are questions that can be asked about the move, some of which only the TM can answer, and others of which only each individual can answer.

If you really feel that it is an imposition to have to go to the town hall, and that the bills should be paid at the bank, drop your editor a post card, and we will announce the grand total. Sign the card, and we will keep the signature confidential. (How many do you think your editor will get?)

SYLVANIA CORPORATION

The efforts of this community, in common with all those around us, to get the Sylvania Corporation to locate here is amusing. The Sylvania Corporation, after some months of dickering and surveying in almost every town and city in the Commonwealth (Wilmington included) finally decided to locate at the site of the meadow behind the Baldwin House in North Woburn. Their probable reasons were (1) proximity to the new route 128, and (2) a good supply of local water. Since then they have become embroiled in a zoning law fight of the nice old fashioned three-cornered variety, and they are now looking everywhere else for another site.

We are told, by people who (perhaps) know, that the site which was rezoned at the Town Meeting is their number one alternate site, because (1) proximity to route 128 and (2) good supply of local water. The TM discovered (if that is the word) through the Geodetic Survey that this land is above an old junction of two river systems which existed in pre-glacial days, and we are assured, solemnly, that this will provide plenty of water, and make the site very desirable.

So... the picture at the moment is this. A delegation from Chelmsford is cooling its heels outside the Sylvania office door. So is one from Billerica. The Lowell City Manager is keeping the telephone wires hot, and so is our own TM. Danvers, Burlington, and Dracut have all evinced interest, and Woburn is still trying to sick the sheriff onto the firm. Who wants to bet that Woburn gets the plant?

TOWN BEACH

We strolled down to the Town Beach the other day, to count the number of taxpayers using our tax money. There were 58 citizens and children of citizens in the water, and about as many lolling on the beach. There is a pretty nice children's pen, extending out to a depth of about three or four inches, where the little tots may play in the beach sand to their heart's delight.

There is a tonic concession there (if concession is the word) operated by the life guard. The profits are to be used to provide prizes for the annual contest at the lake. Off hand that sounds nice, and in a way we approve, but we would like to ask a question or two, just to be sure of what we are talking about, and to keep the record straight.

In whose name is the license? Who provided the initial capital? Is there any accounting? To whom is the money turned over?

Perhaps the questions are picaresque, but they have been asked of your editor, and the best thing that we like about our democracy is that a citizen can ask questions like that, and expect an answer. Personally, we think that everything is on the up and up, and we hope that some gentleman connected with the enterprise will take time out to answer these questions.

A little publicity doesn't do any harm.

POISON IVY

It comes as somewhat of a surprise to your editor, but it is apparent that there are a number of people in this area who are not acquainted with poison ivy. We dis-
